UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Dear Congregation,

The Apostle Paul wrote, “Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.” According to scripture, each one of us have spiritual gifts that we can use in the service of Christ.

Recently you have participated in a spiritual gifts inventory. I hope it was a time of discovery for you. What would our church look like if we were serving the Lord out of our spiritual gifts and strengths?

In this publication we have aligned service opportunities in the church with the spiritual gifts most closely associated with specific tasks.

Using your three top spiritual gifts, look for service opportunities that are supported by your spiritual gifts. Volunteer!

Sincerely,
Rev. Doug de Graffenried

How to use this booklet

Once you have taken your Spiritual Gifts test and read up on the descriptions, it's time to match your gifts with service possibilities.

1. Find some time to pray over the booklet and your spiritual gifts before embarking on this next step. We firmly believe God will guide you to just the right opportunity that fits your gifts, passions, and gets you excited to serve.
2. Take your top 3 spiritual gifts and find them in the booklet. The booklet is in alphabetical order by gifts.
3. Look through each list and find any service opportunities that match at least 2 of the gifts, if not all three. If you have a paper copy of the booklet you can take notes of service opportunities that are in common in the back. Otherwise, a scratch sheet of paper may be helpful.
4. We suspect that those ones that are in common among at least 2 of your gifts would fit you the best as opportunities. Pray over these possibilities and then pick as few or as many as you would like to try over the next few months.
  - a. If none of those interest you, but you find others that may, then feel free to prayerfully consider those.
5. Once you have picked your serving options, we want you to sign up! In the back of the booklet is an index with all the serving opportunities broken up into categories. Locate your option(s) and then head to the Next Steps Tab on the Trinity website (trinityruston.org) and click on Join A Team.
6. Fill Out the form and submit. The team leader of that service opportunity will contact you within 48 hours.
7. Keep an eye out for our Serving Commitment Cards where you will record what your commitment to serve is for the rest of the year. We will receive these cards on Confirmation Sunday, April 24th at both services.

Gift of Administration

And so, brothers, select seven men who are well respected and are full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will give them this responsibility.

Acts 6:3

With this gift the Holy Spirit enables certain Christians to organize, direct, and implement plans to lead others in the various ministries of the Church. This gift is closely related to the gift of leadership, but is more goal or task oriented and is also more concerned with details and organization.

The Gift of Apostleship

Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors, and teachers.

Ephesians 4:11

The mission for those with the gift of apostleship today is to plant new ministries and churches, go into places where the Gospel is not preached, reach across cultures to establish churches in challenging environments, raise up and develop leaders, call out and lead pastors and shepherds, and much more.

The Gift of Discernment

He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to discern whether the message is from the Spirit of God or from another spirit. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages, while another is given the ability to interpret what is being said.

1 Corinthians 12:10

The Holy Spirit gives the gift of discernment to enable certain Christians to clearly recognize and distinguish between the influence of God, Satan, the world, and the flesh in a given situation. The church needs those with this gift to warn believers in times of danger or keep them from being led astray by false teaching.

Gift of Evangelism

But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News, and fully carry out the ministry God has given you.

2 Timothy 4:5

Evangelists are given the unique ability by the Holy Spirit to clearly and effectively communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ to others. They are burdened in their hearts for the lost and will go out of their way to share the truth with them. Evangelists are able to overcome the normal fear of rejection and engage non-believers in meaningful conversations about Jesus. Their gift allows them to communicate with all types of people and therefore they receive a greater response to the message of salvation through Jesus Christ. They continually seek out relationships with those who don't know Jesus and are open to the leading of the Holy Spirit to approach different people. They love giving free treasure away for Jesus, and it brings them great joy knowing that the "feet that bring good news" are beautiful to those who believe.

Gift of Exhortation

The Spirit of God gives this gift to people in the church to strengthen and encourage those who are wavering in their faith. Those with the gift of exhortation can uplift and motivate others as well as challenge and rebuke them in order to foster spiritual growth and action. The goal of the encourager is to see everyone in the church continually building up the body of Christ and glorifying God.

If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

Romans 12:8

The Gift of Faith

The same Spirit gives great faith to another, and to someone else the one Spirit gives healing.

1 Corinthians 12:9

It carries the notion of confidence, certainty, trust, and assurance in the object of faith. The gift of faith is rooted in one's saving faith in Christ and the trust that comes through a close relationship with the Savior. Those with this gift have a trust and confidence in God that allows them to live boldly for Him and manifest that faith in mighty ways.

The Gift of Giving

If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

Romans 12:8

The Holy Spirit imparts this gift to some in the church to meet the various needs of the church and its ministries, missionaries, or of people who do not have the means to provide fully for themselves. The goal is to encourage and provide, giving all credit to God's love and provision. Those with this gift love to share with others the overflow of blessings God has given them. They are typically very hospitable and will seek out ways and opportunities to help others.

Gift of Healing

The same Spirit gives great faith to another, and to someone else the one Spirit gives healing.

1 Corinthians 12:9

The spiritual gift of healing is an intimate one as it reveals the heart and compassion of God. Those who have this gift are compassionate toward the sick and pray over them regularly. They have great faith and trust that God can and will heal some and not be deterred when He chooses not to. They are motivated knowing that God's revealed power will draw people to faith in Jesus.

Gift of Knowledge

I am fully convinced, my dear brothers and sisters, that you are full of goodness. You know these things so well you can teach each other all about them.

Romans 15:14

The gift of knowledge is an understanding of the things in this world and in our lives that are founded in the Gospel and rooted in the Scriptures. This gift is closely related to the gift of wisdom. The Holy Spirit gives this spiritual gift to some believers to bring about understanding and to inform the church or individual believers. The person with this gift is usually well-versed in the Scriptures and often has much committed to memory. They can retain the truth and communicate it effectively at the appropriate times. The gift of knowledge allows a believer to relate the Scriptures, and particularly the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to all aspects of life in this world. They can see how it connects to every situation and circumstance and how the reality and truth of the Gospel is to inform every decision a Christian makes.

Gift of Leadership

Dear brothers and sisters, honor those who are your leaders in the Lord's work. They work hard among you and give you spiritual guidance.

1 Thessalonians 5:12

The Holy Spirit gives the spiritual gift of leadership to some in the church to care for God's people and lead them into deeper relationship with Christ and each other. They are able to accomplish many different tasks and objectives as they lead, but they will always lead relationally and with a deep concern for the well-being of others. They are "visionary" and less concerned with mundane details than those with the spiritual gift of administration. They go to great lengths to protect those under their care and are well-equipped to lead through crisis situations.

Gift of Mercy

Share each other's burdens, and in this way obey the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

All Christians are called to be merciful because God has been merciful to us. The Holy Spirit gives the spiritual gift of mercy to some in the church to love and assist those who are suffering and walk with them until the Lord allows their burdens to be lifted. It is founded in God's mercy towards us as sinners and is consistently expressed with measurable compassion.

The Gift of Miracles

Are we all apostles? Are we all prophets? Are we all teachers? Do we all have the power to do miracles? Do we all have the gift of healing? Do we all have the ability to speak in unknown languages? Do we all have the ability to interpret unknown languages? Of course not! So you should earnestly desire the most helpful gifts.

1 Corinthians 12:29-31

Those with the spiritual gift of miracles often have a heightened sensitivity to the presence and power of God through His Holy Spirit. They have a special measure of faith and desire for God to reveal Himself and draw many to faith in His Son Jesus Christ. They take care not to draw attention to themselves, but are constantly pointing others to Jesus. They understand that God is Sovereign and He can work when and how He desires, but they make sure they are available and listening to the prompting of the Holy Spirit. This gift is often accompanied by prayer and strong petition by these individuals for God to reveal His glory to people.

The Gift of Prophecy

In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you.

Romans 12:6

The Holy Spirit gives the gift of prophecy to some believers to make God's heart known and to edify the church. This gift is for the benefit of both believers and unbelievers and is a sign that God is truly among His church. Those with this gift are sensitive to both the prompting of the Holy Spirit and the needs of the church body. They should be humble and continually study the Scriptures in order to test these revelations before speaking them. When they do speak, they should allow and even expect others to weigh what is said against the Scriptures and interpret the message accordingly. In this way the church may be continually built up together in unity.

The Gift of Shepherd/Pastor

So guard yourselves and God's people. Feed and shepherd God's flock—his church, purchased with his own blood—over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as leaders.

Acts 20:28

The spiritual gift of pastor or pastor/shepherd carries many different responsibilities. They are called and gifted to care for the spiritual well-being of a local body of God's people. Pastors are first and foremost servants. They are servants of God and servants of His bride, the church. They are given a mixture of abilities by grace that allows them to serve the needs of an entire community.

The Holy Spirit gives the spiritual gift of pastor to some in the church to humbly teach them, guide them, protect them, and lead them in the mission that God has for His church, namely the Great Commission. The pastor loves the Gospel of Jesus Christ and puts it at the center of his life and ministry. Pastors do not seek fame or recognition for themselves, but they are placed in a position of authority by the Holy Spirit. The role of the pastor is one of humility and service as he is reminded daily of his overwhelming need of God's grace for the task at hand.

The Gift of Service

If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well.

Romans 12:7

The Holy Spirit endows some believers with this gift to fill the many gaps of ministry and meet the needs of the church as it fulfills the Great Commission. The goal is to energize the church and free up others to use their gifts to the fullest. The result is the continued edification of the church and the added ability to see beyond its own needs and reach out into the community. Those with the gift of service are committed to the spread of the Gospel. They serve in ways that benefit others with different gifts and ministries that are more public. They have a heart devoted to Jesus and a desire to follow His command and example. Those with this gift do not seek recognition or a position in the “spotlight,” they just love to help out. They are content with serving in the background knowing that their contribution will bless the church, display the love of Christ to the world, and bring glory to God.

The Gift of Teaching

Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors, and teachers.

Ephesians 4:11

The spiritual gift of teaching is one that carries a heavy responsibility in the church. Like every believer, teachers are to be stewards of every word that comes out of their mouths. But the greater responsibility to which they are called is to be stewards of the Word of God to His people. Teachers have been entrusted with the task of effectively communicating what the Bible says, what it means, and how we as followers of Jesus Christ are to apply it to our lives here and now.

They hate when Scripture is abused and used out of context or with ill intent. They love the truth and speak the truth in love. They will never hide or withhold it. On the contrary, they desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus who taught in the synagogues and in the Temple as well as anywhere the people were gathered. They are called to demonstrate God's love while revealing His truth to the world without fear.

The Gift of Wisdom

So we have not stopped praying for you since we first heard about you. We ask God to give you complete knowledge of his will and to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding.

Colossians 1:9

Those with the gift of wisdom have a deep understanding of the holiness of God and the lack of holiness in their own hearts. They can recognize this in others as well and have the compassion and boldness to share that truth with them. They are able to take from their own life experiences and share what God has taught them through those things. They can easily recognize where a decision or action may lead and can warn against those that may be harmful or unfruitful. They can often see through the confusion of a situation and can give direction that would help an individual or group obtain a God-glorifying goal. The church needs those with the spiritual gift of wisdom to guide her through uncertain or difficult times.
